

Jay Daugherty Selected by the American Arbitration Association to serve as one of its Arbitrators

Jay Daugherty was selected by the American Arbitration Association as one of its arbitrators for both Commercial and Labor arbitrations. The AAA is a not-for-profit organization with offices throughout the U.S. It has a long and distinguished history and experience in provide outstanding arbitrators and mediators in the field of alternative dispute resolution and providing services to individuals and organizations who wish to resolve conflicts out of court.