

Circuit Judge Named Kentucky Colonel

Governor Paul Patton of Kentucky announces that Circuit Judge Jay Daugherty of Missouri is appointed a Kentucky Colonel.

The appointment came on the eve of Judge Daugherty's attendance as the representative for the State of Missouri at the Summit of the States on Alternative Dispute Resolution. The Summit was held in Lexington, Kentucky. Its purpose was to bring together representatives from all 50 states to discuss alternative dispute resolution and mediation. The attendees meet for three days discussing a range of initiatives to promote, unify and codify the efforts of the various states in the ADR area.
